

Workshop on strategic issues

6-7 May 2010

DARMA now offers a workshop on strategic issues in research administration and management for the first time.

The speakers at the workshop will make short presentations as a starting point for discussions and sharing of experience among the participants. Three cases will be used to work with strategic issues on a practical level.

The workshop focuses on strategic issues from the macro to the micro level.

The course has been developed in cooperation with research managers nationally and internationally and will be taught in English.

The number of participants is limited to 15-20 persons to facilitate an intense learning and networking environment.

Venue: St. Gertruds Konferens, Malmö
Start: Thursday 6 May 2010 – 9.00
Finish: Friday 7 May 2010 – 15.30
Costs: 8.000 kroner for DARMA members,
10.000 kroner for non-members
Deadline: Friday 26 February 2010

The fee covers one night at the hotel on 6 May, course and meals. An additional night with arrival on 5 May costs kr. 1.100 extra.

Registration: Send e-mail to darma@darma.dk with expression of interest (see below)

In case of oversubscription, DARMA will ensure that there is broad representation from member institutions.

On 5 March, it will be announced who will participate and who is on a waiting list (if there is oversubscription).
